died

Alleluia to Jesus who died on the tree,
And all sinners may hope, since the Savior hath died.

And He died on the cross for sinners,
And wept, and bled, and died;
Art Thou the Man that died for me?

Bled and died on Calvary,
For Jesus died for me.

He died to atone for the sins of the world;

Of Him who died for me,
"Oh my son! Would to God I had died
On which the Prince of glory died,
Our blessed Savior died;
That Jesus died for me.

The man who suffered, bled and died

folly

And folly and fashion affect our whole time,

And I repent my folly,
Jesus, pardon all our folly,
So I am filled with folly
You who in sin and folly live, fond

And learned the fond pursuit to shun,

And now in thine eye shines the fond, parting tear.

Cease, fond nature, cease thy strife,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

grace

A throne of grace, oh, at that throne
 A throne of grace, then let us go
 Adorned with shining grace.

I'm running through grace,
 Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,

Among the children of Thy grace,
 And after death Thy boundless grace
 And all the steps that grace display,
 And ev'ry grace is Thine.
 And grace my fears relieved;

And grace will lead me home.

And make His grace abound.
 And plants His grace within.
 And Praise His saving grace,
 And sing the wonders of Thy grace.
 And sung surprising grace.
 And tell the world I'm saved by grace;
 And Thy refreshing grace.
 And to the world proclaim His grace.
 But grace will support and comfort my spirit,
 But I can sing redeeming grace,
 But saints that taste Thy richer grace
 But we arise by grace divine
 By Thy resistless grace;
 Fill our hearts with Thy rich grace,
 God of glory, pow'r and grace,
Grace all the work shall crown
Grace first contrived the way
Grace is the partner of the throne;
Grace taught my wand'ring feet
Grace! 'Tis a charming sound,
Grace, 'tis a most delightful theme,
 Hail Him who saves you by His grace,

He calls thee to His throne of grace,
 He'll give you grace to conquer,

How happy's ev'ry child of grace,
 How precious did that grace appear

Is He a God, and shall His grace
 Is it grace? Is it grace?
 Is this vile world a friend to grace

Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter,

Lord, prepare us by Thy grace,
 May His rich grace the theme prolong
 May the grace of Christ our Savior,
 Men, the dear object of His grace,
 Of all who do free grace refuse;

Of His o'erflowing grace.

Of His redeeming grace.

Oh can I yet be saved by grace?
 Oh, for converting grace, and oh,
 Oh glorious type of heav'nly grace!
 Oh God, to us may grace be giv'n
 Oh Lord, prevent it by Thy grace,
 Oh may my heart, by grace renewed,
 Oh, to grace how great a debtor

Oh trust His grace — in Canaan's land

Others by Thy grace are saved,
 Redeeming grace and dying love.
 Refreshing show'rs of grace divine

Remember the pure word of grace, Scorn Thy grace, Thy pow'r defy;
 Seeking grace, and filled with tears?
 So far the riches of His grace,
 Some fresh memorials of His grace.
 Spirit of grace, be ever nigh;
 Still my cov'nant grace proclaim!
 Such boundless compassion and grace?

That One in all His grace I need;
 The blessing of Thy grace impart,
 The day of grace, and mortals may
 The grace appeared so great.
 The men of grace have found

The news of heav'nly grace;

And I must go, and die down in the cold and silent grave , And rescue from a drunkard's grave ; And saves me from the grave . And triumphed o'er the grave . And where is thy vict'ry, boasting Grave ? He rose from the grave , I from my grave shall rise; Lies silent in the grave . Oh grave , where is thy triumph now, Oh grave ! where! is thy victory? great Adorned a great apostle. I'm going to Jesus, He's heaven's great King. And hasten that great day; And heav'n shall be your great reward. And join that great harmon'ous choir; And sing thy great Redeemer's praise, And we expect the great reward. Around the great white throne; At the great rising day. Before the great I Am. But His great love for you I tell; For the great day of the Lord is come, Great Creator, on us, Thy sad children, with love. Great God, and wilt Thou condescend Great God, attend, while Zion sings Great God! Is this our certain doom? Great God, let all my tuneful pow'rs Great God, let all Thy tuneful pow'r Great God of love, I can but wonder, Great God, the heav'n's well-ordered frame Great God, Thy nature hath no bound; Great love and mercy He will show; Great peace and consolation. Great salvation, don't reject it, Great was his elevation Great was his exultation, His great name for to adore. His loving kindness Oh! how great ! His sweat was as great drops of blood. I know I must go through great tribulation,

I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
I'll receive the great reward.
Is the Redeemer's great command;
It is great pride and passion
It is our Father's great command,
May His great love now constrain us,
May I its great importance learn,
My crimes, though great, cannot surpass
My great Redeemer's praise,

My great Redeemer's throne,
Of Jesus' great mercy to sinners confessed.
Oh, to grace how great a debtor

The great myster'ous King;
The time t'insure the great reward;
Their great Original proclaim.
Then, Oh my great Redeemer, God,
They serve their great Redeemer,
Thus we'll surround the great white throne, Thy Great Provider still is near,
To join that great celestial band,
To that great judgment day.
Who is the great I Am,
Whose mercies are so great,
With saints of great renown,
Your great Redeemer sing.

In pastures green He leads me on,
In pastures green he makes me lie,
Stand dressed in living green,

Sweet fields arrayed in living green,

The trees of life, the pastures green, greet
And greet me first in heav'n.

Then in heav'n with joy to greet thee, grief
A heart with grief oppressed,
A poor wayfaring man of grief
'Mid storms of doubt, in grief or woe,
And carried all my grief.
And sorrow, grief and pain

But drops of grief can ne'er repay
For grief and lamentation.

From grief and woe my soul shall fly,
Give joy or grief, give ease or pain,

Here's love and grief beyond degree:
His crimes, with inward grief and shame,
His love will banish grief,

It is the grief of love.
Let floods of penitential grief
My grief a burden long has been,
No prophet speaks to calm our grief,
Oh, 'tis not in grief to harm me,

Shine upon us from on high!
Surrounded with mercy and peace from on high.

That leads to joys on high,
The God that rules on high,
The spacious firmament on high,
Thence He arose, ascended high,
There he saw in a vision a ladder so high,

Thus saith the high and lofty One:
Thy grace can raise my comforts high
Thy sins, how high they mount.
To fairer worlds on high.

Must wither like the blasted rose;

Oh, is there anyone like me?
Oh who is like Jesus? hallelujah,
Or like a shooting star.
Repentance should like rivers flow,
Run like the unwearied Paul,
Some few, like good Elijah stand,

That saved a wretch like me!

The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
The earth will soon dissolve like snow,
The garments gleam like silvery sheen,

The Spirit like a little dove
There's none like Jesus, hallelujah, Thou art not, like them, untrue.
Though now my temptations like billows may foam,

Thought my counsels like thy own.
Time, like the tide, its motion keeps,
Was ever love like Thine?
Yes, I feel like going home:
You draw like cords around my heart.
Your friendship's like a drawing band, Youth, like the spring, will soon be gone,

I want to live for Jesus ev'ry day,
I want to work each day I live,

I want your souls with Christ to live,
I wish your souls with Christ to live
In paradise live,
It's where He lives I want to live.
Let a repenting rebel live:
Let's live so in youth that we blush not in age.

Lord, we shall live with Thee, Oh, His blood was shed that we might live
Say, "Live forever, glorious King,
Shall live and sing His praise above, Stoop down and drink and live!"
Then I shall live in heav'n above, Though by begging used to live;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
To live forevermore.
To live through endless days,

To live where joys are ever known.

To live with Thee forever more.
To seek Jehovah while you live,
Turn to God, Oh turn and live,

I long, dearest Lord, in Thy beauties to

I long to be soaring away,
I long to dwell and eternally join in the song,
I long to praise Him after death.
I long to see my friends again

I long to see the hour
Long as eternal ages roll.
Long for a cooling stream at hand,
Long have I sat beneath the sound
Long in silence I have waited,
Long since last revival.
Long thy guilt in secret grown;
My friends, I am going a long and tedious journey,
My grief a burden long has been,
Oh, how I long for thee!
Oh, yes, my Lord, for I don't care to stay here long.

O'er lands which long in darkness lay:
The ladder is long, it is strong and well-made,
The road to glory seems so long,
The Savior promised long;
Then carry me to my long-sought home,

This is the way I long have sought,
We all ere long shall meet above.
We sometimes long for peace and joy
We'll stem the storm, it won't be long,
With us thy fond spirit did not tarry long,

And longed their souls to win;

longer

And I don't expect to stay much longer here.

I can no longer stay with you,
Keep no longer at a distance,
No longer fight against your God;

No longer will I ask your love, and affection,

parents

My parents, though dear, are safe landed in glory,

part

Although we part, perhaps in tears,
 And each fulfill his part,
 And never, never part again.
 And part are crossing now.
 Awake, my soul, and bear a part

Dear brethren, as for my part,
 No, never part again.
Part of the host have crossed the flood,

Since you and I must part;

That they should never part.
 The time must come when we must
part,

Then shall I share a glorious part,
 Though we part here in body, we're bound for one glory,

To leave my dear friends, and with neighbors part,

To part no more
 To part with you gives to my heart
 What? never part again.

When we asunder part,
 Where we shall never part.
 Which neither life nor death can part
 With all my idols part,
 Yet when I see that we must part partake

Partake a little morsel.

parted

We must be parted for a while,
 When we must be parted from this social band;

And now the poor by Him redeemed,
And on this poor, benighted soul,
Appointed for the poor,
As the poor man toils in his weary lot:
Brethren, see poor sinners 'round you,
Come, ye sinners, poor and needy,
He bids th'oppressed and poor repair, He spake and my poor name He named:

I, a poor child, and thou, so high.
I am a poor, wayfaring stranger,
I travailed for their poor children,

Naked, poor, despised, forsaken,
Nor hope lends a ray the poor seaman to cherish,
Poor mourners found a home at last.
Poor sinners are returning home,
Poor sinners may deride me,
Priest and people, rich and poor;
That poor rebel, Lord, was I.

He saw his son returning back,
I'll thank Him for His Son
In and through God's only Son.
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
"Jesus Thou Son and heir of heav'n?
"Mercy, O Thou Son of David,"

Not worthy to be called his son,
"Oh my son! Would to God I had died
Our Father's only Son,
The Son and Spirit, too.
The Son of God in tears
There God the Son forever reigns,

When from the dead He raised His Son

song

An angel's song can do no more.
And burst into a song;
And Christ will be my song.
And every voice a song.
And form a sacred song,
And join the sacred song.
And sing a parting song;
And sing redemption's song.
And sorrows often take my song;
And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.
And thus conclude their song.
Forgive the song that falls so low,
Hark! what sweet music, what a song,
I've learned to sing a glad, new song,
I've learned to sing the song of joy,
I've learned to sing the song of peace,
He justly claims a song from me,
He safely leads my song along,
I long to dwell and eternally join in the
song,
If Thou art my sun and my song,
Join in a song with sweet accord,

Let one sweet song begin,

My comfort by day and my song in the night

Sing a sweet song such as angels may have,
Soon I shall sing the glad, new song, Sweet song, whose melting sounds impart
Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
Till death and glory raise the song.
We'll join the everlasting song,
When I shall unite in your song?
Ye heav'nly host, the song begin,

songs

And songs of joy and victory
Call for songs of loudest praise.

For little songs and little ways Hither, ye faithful, haste with songs of triumph,
Let the high heav'n's your songs invite,
My songs address Thy throne.
Our songs and our complaints.

Sing, brethren, sing, your songs of triumph bring.
Sing songs of holy ecstasy,

Songs immortal sweetly sounding,
Their songs are ever new;
Their songs of honor raise.
Then let our songs abound,

Then let your songs abound,
Thou no more our songs shall know.
With songs and honors sounding loud, sonnet

And her celestial sonnet sings, sons

And sets her sons among the stars.
Born to raise the sons of earth;
Fair science her gate to thy sons shall unbar,
Hail ye sighing sons of sorrow;
So is my beloved among the sons.
The sons of courage shall record,
Ye gallant sons of temperance — soon

And I know I soon will follow,
And I soon shall sing in eternity.
And soon shall get to heaven
And soon shall hear the trumpet sound,
And soon we'll meet above.
And soon with you 'twill be too late

As soon as the churches are redeemed from sin,
Ashamed of Jesus! just as soon
But soon He'll break death's anxious chain,
But soon I found 'twas all a dream Come on, Come on, we'll soon be there;
For my form will soon be lying
Go on, go on, we'll soon be there;
He gave thee, and took thee, and soon will restore thee,
I soon shall behold, with increasing delight,
I soon shall exchange you for views more sublime,
I soon shall mount the upper skies,
I soon shall pass the vale of death,
I soon shall see — enjoy my happy choice,
I soon shall sing with the angels' band,
I soon shall view the promised land,
I'll soon be freed from all the pain,
If this be death, I soon shall be

My soul repeat His praise, My soul revived, My soul seeks another home. My soul shall ascend where Jesus is, My soul shall meet Thy will. My soul shall quit this mournful vale,
I've sought for bliss in glitt'ring toys Home, sweet home, my long-sought home,	135 Olney 387 Penick	For thee, my soul , for thee. From grief and woe my soul shall fly, From time to time my helpless soul , Hangs my helpless soul on Thee: He is my soul's sweet morning star,		My soul should stretch her wings in haste, My soul when sinking in distress, My soul which springs beyond thy sphere, My soul would stretch her wings in haste,
Jesus sought me when a stranger, Then carry me to my long-sought home,	53 Jerusalem	He restoreth my soul .		My thirsty soul doth pine; My trembling soul to all can tell Nay, but where'er my soul ascends, Nor will He put my soul to shame,
This is the way I long have sought ,		His soul flew to mansions on high. His soul shall ascend where Jesus is, Hosanna, to Jesus, my soul's filled with praises, Hosanna to Jesus! my soul how it pleases		Now mounting, my soul shall descrie, Now shall my soul be lifted high, Of a soul in its earliest love. Oh Breath of life, breathe on my soul ! Oh, if my soul was formed for woe, Oh, my soul , oh my soul ! Oh receive my soul at last. Oh tell me, my soul , is it death, Oh then my happy soul shall tell thee

A mortal man ashamed of Thee?
All, all will be peace when I'm with Thee at home.
All my help from Thee I bring,
All my trust on Thee is stayed,
All our help must come from Thee.
All to leave and follow Thee;
And bring thee to the peaceful shore,
And drove Thee from my breast.
And heard thee faintly cry,
And I am left alone with Thee.
And joy within Thee wait,
And lay thee down to rest.
And learn to love Thee more.
And make me live to Thee.
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.
And the last chain that bound thee, the spoiler now rends;
And unto Thee will I devote
And we still will follow Thee.
And worship only Thee.
As such I look to Thee, Ashamed of Thee whom angels praise,
Because conferred by Thee.

Ten thousand times ten thousand	115 Edmonds

There was old father Noah, and ten thousand more,
When we've been there ten thousand years, thousands

And thousands by faith are now climbing it still.
And thousands daily are undone.

And thousands walk together there;
And thousands were converted,

And with the thousands of the blest, Thousands and thousands, and ten times thousands
Thousands sleeping in their sins,
While thousands have revolted, three

To praise th'eternal Three.
With our three score years and ten,

threw

And threw his arms around the neck thrice

And thrice precious Jesus, whose love cannot cease;
Thrice blessed are they who hear the call,
Thrice from the stream he drained my cup,

thrive

The lilies grow and thrive;

throne

A throne of grace, oh, at that throne
A throne of grace, then let us go
And gathered 'round the snow-white throne
And see His humble throne;

And thus surround the throne.

Around the great white throne;
Around the Savior's throne;
Be my Redeemer's throne,
Beneath the sacred throne of God
But I am dumb before Thy throne,
Cast their crowns before His throne,
Come, worship at His throne,

Firm as His throne His promise stands

Grace is the partner of the throne;
He calls thee to His throne of grace,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne, High was Thy throne ere heav'n was made,

I sit upon my holy throne,
In hymns around the throne;
Jesus on His throne appears;
Let every heart prepare a throne,
My great Redeemer's throne,
My rock and refuge is His throne;

My songs address Thy throne.
My thoughts address His throne, Presenting at His Father's throne

See, gracious God, before Thy throne, That prayed, and God heard from His throne.

The face of Him that sitteth on the
throne;
They sit around Thy gracious throne,
Thus we'll surround the great white
throne,
Thy saints, Oh Lord, before Thy throne
To sit with joy at God's own throne,

Under the shadow of Thy throne, We'll sing around the throne in sweet accord,

Which opens the way to God's throne.
While sitting 'round His throne,
While they surround the holy throne,
While Thou art sitting on Thy throne,
While ye surround His throne.

Goodness and wrath in vain combine
I hear, but seem to hear in vain,

In vain Thou struggled to get free,

In vain to heav'n she lifts her eyes,

In vain we lavish out our lives,

Is labor that's all spent in vain;

Lord, let not all my hopes be vain,

My soul forsakes her vain delight

No more with this vain world perplexed,

Of this world's vain store,

Oh, may I never read in vain,

Or hast Thou made mankind in vain?

Shall we seek Thee, Lord, in vain?

The fields strive in vain to look gay;

The vain and the young may attend us a while,

The world and flesh in vain may rise;

Vain man, thy fond pursuits forbear,

Vain world, adieu.

Was urged upon our necks in vain,

vale

And through the vale of death shall bear us,

Beyond this vale of tears

But beyond this vale of sorrow

Here in this vale confined?

I soon shall pass the vale of death,

My soul shall quit this mournful vale,

Off along the flow'ry vale.

While in this vale of sorrow,

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,

vales

There rocks and hills and brooks, and vales,

I find myself out of the way,
I forward go in duty's way,
I go my way, and here you stay,
I know he'll guide me all the way.
I know my way is rough and steep;
I'll travel in the sacred way,
In Thine own appointed way,

Light and love upon my way;
Like soldiers in the good old way.
Of joy adorn my way;
Prepare ye the way of the Lord,
See how the angels wing their way
Show my forgetful feet the way
That walk in yonder narrow way,
The narrow way till Him I view.

The way of life and Christ to choose.

The way the holy prophets went,

This is the way I long have sought,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
Through which pilgrims make their way.

Which opens the way to God's throne.
While we run the bright, shining way;
Who tempt the dang'rous way.
Who walk the way to Canaan's land;
You can share along the way of love.
You will find Christ in the way.
